SNOHOMISH COUNTY DAILY BRIEFING

Snohomish Health District Health Orders

Dr. Chris Spitters, health officer for the Snohomish Health District, issued two health officer orders yesterday. The first extends existing orders to reduce the likelihood that individuals will be exposed to COVID-19 at community events and gatherings.

The second order focuses on the critical importance of remaining in self-quarantine if you've been exposed to a confirmed case or are symptomatic with a pending test, or to stay isolated away from others if you test positive for COVID-19.

Updates from Governor Jay Inslee

Over the last few days, Gov. Inslee has issued additional guidance to his "Stay Home, Stay Healthy" Order.

Essential worker and essential business clarifications were issued today including clarification for nannies working for essential workers, auto repair services, limited automotive sales and leasing activities, and renewable energies. More details here.

A new proclamation was issued that waives the post-retirement statutory work limitations for PERS, LEOFF, and PSERS to allow experienced employees to return to work for essential jobs, such as medical, public health, law enforcement, and other critical positions. It also allows experienced employees in essential positions who are nearing retirement to remain in their positions. More details here.

Guidance for funerals and real estate transactions was issued over the weekend. More details here.

Yesterday, Gov. Jay Inslee and Charlie Clark, director of the Washington State Department of Financial Institutions (DFI) announced the state is taking steps to assist distressed Washington homeowners unable to make mortgage payments: Homeowners in distress may call DFI's toll-free number, 877-RING-DFI (746-4334), or visit www.homeownership.wa.gov to get assistance on how best to contact their mortgage servicer and to learn more about their options. More details here.

Governor Jay Inslee Press Conference Today

Gov. Inslee held a press conference at 2 p.m. today to discuss Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) availability. To watch, go to TVW.

Women, Infants, and Children (WIC) Benefits

WIC is open and delivering benefits remotely. For families whose situation may have changed due to COVID-19, they may qualify for WIC. To find a WIC clinic call 1-800-322-2588 or text "WIC" to 96859.

Families who do not use WIC could help our WIC families by leaving WIC products on the shelf and choosing something else if possible. The products marked with a WIC shelf tag are the only things WIC families are able to buy with their WIC benefit.
